

City of Highland Park

SITE PLAN

Port Clinton Square is a vibrant, multi-use complex located in the heart of downtown Highland Park, Illinois. A public-private partnership, the plaza is owned by the City paired with privately owned buildings.

○ The area shown in the green circle has been identified as the preferred location within the plaza although Artists are welcome to propose alternative sites within the Plaza.

The final location of the artwork is subject to approval of the Highland Park City Council.